MISTER LOVERBOY SILK

LOCATES THE INNER YOU

A Cautionary Tale

Perhaps the most interesting and distinct feature of the new SpeakThink 2000 series of Dauschund dynamic microphones is the range which included a prototype for a detachable model which operated on certain radio frequencies. The client who asked for this model to be developed was Mister Loverboy Silk, the former chat show host and minor celebrity. Its design specifications should detain us here for a moment, if for no other reason than it is the first attachable penile microphone which records, for playback, the inner thoughts and turbulent emotional states of any female willing to undergo treatment. This, of course, is on the understanding that she will yield to the imprecations
